Elder Scrolls Online: Elsweyr is the third main game in the grand Elder Scrolls saga. The world is comprised of Tamriel, the Isles of Undeath, and a vast Otherworld, and you play a character that has been resurrected from the dead. You are an adventurer who must utilize the powerful skill of the player-driven actions system, or "Active Skyrim", to explore Tamriel, encounter its people, and overcome challenges. As you achieve various goals in the game, you will help restore order to the world. With the help of your allies in the Dovakin'shan Restoration Guild, you will take on quests, and perform actions to keep the peace. You may also delve into the dungeons and frontiers of Tamriel to make your own mark, and establish your own destiny. You will make new friends along the way, and form personal bonds with others that will last for your lifetime. © Bethesda Game Studios and ZeniMax Media, Inc. 2018 Bethesda Softworks LLC, a ZeniMax Media company. I want this game to sell well because I'm getting paid for it, so I'm asking you to please visit the store page of this game and purchase it. The coins I get from this are a huge help to me and I need to buy food, pay rent, and cover other expenses. I'm really grateful for every single purchase! The following is how the revenue is divided up: 70%- Dan (maker of this request) 8%- Game providers 20%- Patreon (from newly earned funds) 2%- PayPal transactions (I don't pay myself) Additionally, I post an author's note on Twitter, FB, and Reddit, so feel free to check that out. I've read all the author's notes and have followed the advice given, but still can't seem to make the game sell well. I'm trying to be a "good" publisher in the sense that I'm not lying about sales, or manipulating reviews, but it's just not working. I'm trying to establish a good relationship with the major game distributors, but they can't help me either. I have a very large volume of orders from all the different distributors, and they all end up stacking on top of each other, so they all end up saying "No" to me for various reasons. I'm doing everything I can to change this, but I haven't found a solution yet. I genuinely love this game, and I'm dying to give it more funding, but I can't figure out how to make it happen. The game is doing fine on Steam, but I'm not seeing enough sales
