Any references to any brands on this site/page, including reference to brands and instruments, are provided for description purposes only and do not imply that we endorse any specific brand. These references do not imply that we have any relationship with the brands and they do not imply that they are endorsed by us, unless explicitly stated. We do not sell products directly on this site. We do not sell instruments, but rather, we provide training and parts and advise people to build their own instruments. In this case, while we have a relationship with the manufacturer, the intention is that you build your own item and we do not attempt to control the price or quality for you. If you have any questions about this instrument, or any other instrument offered for sale, you are advised to contact the manufacturer directly or a valid retailer. You should also be aware that we have a relationship with the manufacturers of certain instruments that we are required to promote in order to maintain compliance of the FDA guidelines for commercial transactions. FAQ Do I need to pay a lot of money in order to purchase these items? We believe you will find the instruments you need to build drum kits for reasonable prices. We believe in providing access to these instruments for those who would like to build their own drum kits. Are all of the kits for sale? No, these are demo kits that are no longer for sale. While we would like to sell drums. it is not easy to do so. We sell drum parts (KLANG Bells, Cymbals, Batteries, etc) and provide the means to build your own kit. I have some questions. Are there people who would be able to answer them? The people who answer questions on this site are professionals who design and create these products. They have been very helpful and we encourage people to contact them with any questions that you may have. They include: Frank Parrino, Hans Rötzli, Bill Brennan, Howard W. Preiss, Hu Zhang, Daniel Damato, Julez, David Skolnik, Robert Racine, Maikus, Jake Martin, Cory Peracchio, Rene Zalewa, Graeme Nelki, Josh Baraban, Andreas Schmaus, and Paul J. Higer. Of course, there are many more people, but they are either too busy to answer questions or they want to stick to the promotion of their products and music.
