Designed to support the latest vector features of Illustrator CS3 such as Grid Strokes, Rotate and Aspect ratios, the Illustrator DeskPack modules are an easy, elegant way to generate and manage sets of vector illustrations for the web. With less to worry about, you'll be more productive. For instance, if you're only creating a small line of business card, you can use DeskPack's vector scalable graphics module to create the card with any size or resolution, even without additional software. You can apply a border to the image or the paper without worrying about a bleed, and you can easily choose to apply the border to one side or the other. The DeskPack workflow is very flexible and allows a tight integration with traditional prepress workflows using the tools that are most familiar to you. For instance, you can apply the trapping process via the regular plate workspace in DeskPack and then continue your workflow in Layout Designer without anyone the wiser. The DeskPack standalone plugins for Adobe Illustrator are available for Windows and macOS platforms. We do not offer support for macOS Hardware. The DeskPack standalone plugins for Adobe Illustrator are available for Windows and macOS platforms. They require one single Adobe Acrobat reader and Adobe Illustrator software to be installed on your computer. DeskPack for Illustrator does not offer a support.
